JUDGMENT AND ORDER

These cases come on for resentencing this 18th day of November, 1969, pursuant to regular notice and setting. The Defendant is present in person and by his Court-appointed counsel, William C. Anderson. The Government is present by its attorney, Assistant United States Attorney Hubert H. Bryant. The Court has examined the files herein, has heard the statements and arguments of the Defendant and of counsel, and has further examined the file in Case No. 69-C-208, Charles Emery Langford, Petitioner, v. J. T. Willingham, Warden, United States District Court For The Northern District Of Oklahoma.

The Court finds that on July 24, 1967, Defendant was granted a mandatory release from a federal prison sentence upon which he had approximately twenty-two (22) months left to serve.

The Court further finds that thereafter, on October 24, 1967, Defendant came before this Court in Case No. 67-CR-110, No. 67-CR-111, and No. 67-CR-112, the charge in each case involving a violation of Title 18 U.S.C. §2312, such violations having allegedly occurred while Defendant was at large on said mandatory release; that on October 24, 1967, the Defendant entered a plea of guilty in each of the three said cases, the details of each said offense being more fully set forth in the original Judgment and Commitment entered in each of the three said cases on October 24, 1967.

The Court further finds that in Case No. 67-CR-110, this Court, on October 24, 1967, sentenced Defendant to imprisonment for a period of three (3) years, to run concurrently with any mandatory release violation time imposed on Defendant, but that through error, the written Order filed in said case omitted the provision that the three-year sentence was to run concurrently with such mandatory release violation time; that in Case No. 67-CR-111, this Court sentenced Defendant to imprisonment for a period of three (3) years, to run concurrently with the sentence imposed in No. 67-CR-110; and that in Case No. 67-CR-112, this Court suspended imposition of sentence, and placed Defendant on probation for a period of two (2) years to commence at the expiration of sentences imposed in Nos. 67-CR-110 and 67-CR-111; that thereafter, the error in reducing the sentence imposed in No. 67-CR-110 to writing was called to the attention of the Court, and on April 25, 1968, an order nunc pro tunc was filed in said Case correcting the Judgment and Commitment entered therein in pertinent part as follows:

" 'IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the sentence imposed herein shall run concurrent with any mandatory release violation time imposed by such authorities.'

"It is further ordered that this order shall be effective as of the 24th day of October, 1967."

The Court further finds that on October 16, 1967, the United States Board of Paroles issued a warrant for Defendant's retaking for violation of the terms of his mandatory release; that at the time of sentencing in Case Nos. 67-CR-110, 67-CR-111 and 67-CR-112, on October 24, 1967, this Court was advised that said violator's warrant was being forwarded to the United States Attorney to be served upon the Defendant; that in September of 1968, the United States Board of Paroles held a hearing at Leavenworth Penitentiary for the purpose of determining whether to serve said violator's warrant upon Defendant, such hearing having been attended by Defendant without the assistance of counsel; that the result of such hearing was a decision by the United States Board of Paroles not to serve said violator's warrant, and that Defendant should continue to expiration his sentence imposed by this Court in Case No. 67-CR-110.

The Court further finds that on August 14, 1969, Defendant filed an action in this Court, the same being Civil Case No. 69-C-208, hereinabove referred to, seeking to test the aforementioned actions of the United States Board of Paroles, as well as the legality and validity of the sentence which he was serving; that on September 10, 1969, this Court held a hearing in said action, treating it as one for relief under 18 U.S.C. §2255, as well as a quasi-proceeding for relief under Rule 35, F.R.Crim.P.; that as a result of said hearing, this Court entered its Order of September 10, 1969, filed September 16, 1969, releasing the Defendant, and providing in pertinent part as follows:

"The Court further finds that it was the intention of this Court in sentencing Petitioner in Case No. 67-CR-110, that Petitioner should serve no more than three years imprisonment, including mandatory release violation time; that the sentences imposed by this Court in Case No. 67-CR-110, as corrected by order nunc pro tunc, and in Case Nos. 67-CR-111 and 67-CR-112, are therefore void, illegal, invalid and should be held for naught; that such sentences are void, illegal and invalid for the reason that (1) they either attempt to order the United States Board of Paroles to serve its violator's warrant, an order which is beyond the authority of this Court, or (2) because they condition the beginning of such sentences upon service of the parole violator's warrant by the United States Board of Paroles, an action which may never occur, and therefore such sentences are void as vague and indefinite; and that such sentences are also void for the reason that at the time of sentencing, this Court was advised that service of the violator's warrant was imminent, an event which did not take place.

"IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the sentences imposed by this Court in Case Nos. 67-CR-110, 67-CR-111 and 67-CR-112 are illegal, invalid, void and are hereby vacated and held for naught.

"IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that resentencing in Case Nos. 67-CR-110, 67-CR-111 and 67-CR-112, be and the same hereby is deferred to a later date.

"IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Petitioner is ordered released forthwith, to return to his home at Pleasanton, Kansas; Petitioner is directed by the Court to remain in communication with his Court-appointed counsel and to be available for such further proceedings in these matters as the Court shall deem necessary."

The Court further finds that under the original sentence imposed in No. 67-CR-110, the Defendant is credited with having served from October 24, 1967 through September 10, 1969.

And the Court having in mind all the facts and circumstances of these cases, including particularly the amount of time already served by the Defendant, and further having in mind the actions of the United States Board of Paroles as detailed in this Court's Order of September 10, 1969 in Case No. 69-C-208 and the fact that the aforementioned violator's warrant has not been served upon the Defendant, finds that the ends of justice will best be served by imposition of the following sentences, which IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED shall be the sentences of this Court in these cases:

In Case No. 67-CR-110, IT IS ADJUDGED that imposition of sentence is suspended and the Defendant is placed on probation for a period of two (2) years from this date.

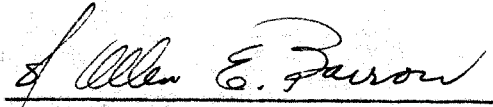

In Case No. 67-CR-111, IT IS ADJUDGED that imposition of sentence is suspended and the Defendant is placed on probation for a period of two (2) years from this date, such probationary period to run concurrently with the probation imposed in No. 67-CR-110.

In Case No. 67-CR-112, IT IS ADJUDGED that imposition of sentence is suspended and the Defendant is placed on probation for a period of two (2) years from this date, such probationary period to run concurrently with the probation imposed in Case Nos. 67-CR-110 and 67-CR-111.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendant be permitted to return to his original home in Pleasanton, Kansas, and maintain his home there and pursue his livelihood and means of occupation there.

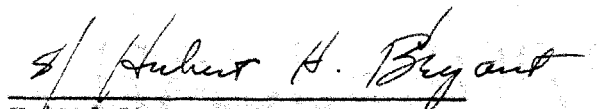

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that during the period of probation, the Defendant shall conduct himself as a law-abiding, industrious citizen and observe such conditions of probation as the Court may prescribe. Otherwise the Defendant may be brought before this Court for violation of the Court's Orders.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk deliver three certified copies of this Judgment and Order to the probation officer of this Court, one of which shall be delivered to the Defendant by the probation officer.
